There's a disease of small grain that is taking its toll across the Mid-section of Virginia . The disease is Yellow Dwarf and in concentrated in a band from Appomattox - Charlotte - Amelia to Prince George County.

This is a virus disease that is transmitted from grasses such as fescue and orchardgrass by aphids. The transfer occurs during mild winters, usually in the late fall to early winter.

Although it affects barley, oats and wheat it is considered to be more serious in barley and oats. Generally it is found in patches or circles. Symptoms are: Barley yellows, oats show a redding of the leaves, and wheat has purpling of the leaves and stems. Often time the plant heads out shorter and blasting of oatheads may occur.

The economic loss may be from zero to 100%.

The disease has been identified in barley on the farm of Sam Davidson and E. W. & Dan Carson. We received a number of calls over the week end that have not been verified as Yellow Dwarf.

The Richardson Brothers are participating in a soil insect control demonstration. Their entire corn crop is being planted in Rye Sod. We're using Dyfonate, Diazinon and Fursdan.

Furadan looked real good last year and in Rockbridge County there was indications that it controlled armyworms in sod planted corn.

We were able to secure a few of the newer tomato variety seed and with the assistance of Ernest Rogers and Ernest Baldwin we were able to get the plants grown.

The four varieties: Harris 657, Campbell 1327, Spring Set and Stakeless arebeing frown by persons who called and asked about the varieites or who often look for new varieties.

Tomatoes may be seen at: W. B. Morris, Appomattox Intermediate FFA Garden, Paul Ford and James Clark, R. W. Stanley, Fred Smith, J. R. Shuford, E. C. Rogers, Ronald Paulette, R. A. Moon, and Earnest Baldwin.

Have you noiced the large number of Goldfinch Birds. It appears to me that we've had an unusually large number over the past two weeks.

For the first time we've identified Canada Thistle in Appomattox County. It's on the farm of Harold Morris. Canada Thistle is a particularly bad pest because it is stoleniferous in addition to being a heavy seed producer.

It had been hoped that during the '72-'73 Fire Cured Marketing season a portion of the crop could be marketed untied.

At a meeting of the Commission of April 27 it was determined that this would not be pratical this year. The report stated that no foreign customer could use their requirement in loose leaf form, Domestic manufactures say they would prefer their supply to be either tied or untied; but not a combination.

The Commission reports disappointment in not being able to proceed along these lines.

Our chapter president, Diane Smith, receivedthe "Honor Chapter" award at the FBLA Conference in Roanoke, Virginia on April 22.

FBLA Receives Honor

The week of April 17 was proclaimed as Future Business Leaders of America Week by Governor Holton.

During this time the Appomattox FBLA chapter members carried on many activities in cooperation with National FBLA Week.

One of the projects of the chapter members was to type for teachers and also to encourage business students to take an active part in FBLA.

On April 19 the chapter held "Dress Right Day". The chapter members were required to dress as they would if working in an office. The faculty selected three students as most appropriately dressed for this occasion. The students were Brenda Ferguson, Debra Lucas, and Patsy Jones. They were all presented with a corsage.

The 19th was also National Secretaries Day. Janice Doss, Nancy Ranson, Donna Stanley, and Brenda Goin were presented flowers from their supervisors. Mrs. Bolling Carter also presented flowers to Mrs. Celia Beamer, who is business instructor at the high school.

To climax the week, Diane Smith, Iris Cordell, Patsy Jones, Cathy Gowin, Jewel Williams, Susan Weatherly, Mrs. Celia Beamer and Mrs. Joan Holt, attended the annual FBLA Conference which was held in Roanoke.

At the conference, our chapter received an Honor Certificate which is the highest award available.

"Checking accounts are too complicated."

Besides, I don't feel easy in a bank."

A lot of people think checking accounts are more trouble than they're worth. Which is a shame. Because the truth is just about anybody can handle money better with the help of a Fidelity checking account. It's easy to open, easy to use, and it makes keeping track of your money as simple as 1,2,3.

With checks you know where your money is going. You waste less. And you save more. Best of all, it doesn't have to cost you a cent. So stop in and ask about a checking account of your own. You'll feel welcome and you'll get straight answers to your questions. One more thing. At Fidelity, we're an easy going group. Very informal. So come as you are.
